

Directions to Le Martoret

Autoroute A6 from the north

Once you leave the Autoroute at J27, Tournus get on to the N6 south which you automatically do anyway as you leave the toll. Go through Tournus on the N6 and head south for Maçon. At Fleurville roundabout, about 13km after Tournus, turn right on to the D15 and stay on this road through Fleurville, Viré, Péronne until you get to Azé.

At Azé keep going south on the D82 towards Maçon but at the end of the village just after the Cave Co-operative d'Azé which is on the left, turn right on to the D85 towards Igé. You will go through a small hamlet called Chussin and over a small hill. You will see acres of vines on both sides of the road.

The next settlement is Le Martoret and we are the first house on the left immediately after the sign. You will see a maroon panel naming Chateau des Pommiers. Ring the big bell on the end of the building or the little one at the back door.

Autoroute A6 from the south

Leave the A6 at Junction 29 – Maçon-Sud. After the toll there is a roundabout. Take the first exit and head for Charolles on the N79 westbound. Stay on this road for about 8km then take the exit for La Roche Vineuse.

After leaving the slip road take the next left into the village about 2.5km distant. In the middle of La Roche Vineuse turn right opposite a hair-dresser's on to the D85 towards Verzé and Igé. Continue through Igé on the D85 for about 1km. The next settlement is Le Martoret. We are the last house on the right as you leave the hamlet. You should see the maroon panel naming Chateau des Pommiers.

Autoroute A40 from the east

Join the A6 at Maçon and head north. Leave the motorway at Junction 28. At the roundabout after the péage booths take the first exit and at the next roundabout follow signs to Charbonniers. The road crosses the motorway and after about ½ km take a turn on the left to Blany.

At the next 'T' go right to Laizé and on to St Maurice de Satonnay and Azé. At Azé turn left on to the D85 towards Igé. You will go through a small hamlet called Chussin and over a small hill. You will see acres of vines on both sides of the road. The next settlement is Le Martoret and we are the first house on the left immediately after the sign. You will see a maroon panel naming Chateau des Pommiers. Ring the big bell on the end of the building or the little one at the back door.

Route Nationale N79 from the west

Leave the N79 at the turn for La Roche Vineuse. After leaving the slip road take the next left into the village about 2.5km distant. In the middle to La Roche Vineuse turn right opposite a hair-dresser's on to the D85 towards Verzé and Igé. Continue through Igé on the D85 for about 1km. The next settlement is Le Martoret. We are the last house on the right as you leave the hamlet. You should see the maroon panel naming Chateau des Pommiers.
